FOREWORD

In token of our appreciation, we, the Senior Class of 1959, leave this annual to you, our teachers, classmates, and friends of Rich Square High School. Through the past years we have sought to grow in wisdom and stature. We have become acquainted with the joys of victory and the sorrows of defeat. For all that we have achieved on our short trip down life's path, we are thankful to you who have been there to help and guide us on our way. We shall never forget these past twelve years, for they have truly been our stepping stones to life and reality.

DEDICATION

For her friendly counsel, her great interest in our work both in and out of the classroom; her sympathetic understanding of our many problems as a class, and as individuals; for her patience and her work with us "over and beyond the call of duty" as a teacher; we want to leave a lasting expression of our love and gratitude. To that end, we, the Class of 1959, dedicate this, our "Rowanian", to a friend we can never forget, Mrs. Margaret B. Dunning.

CLASS POEM

Alas, old class of '59
Joys we share, must leave behind
Times we've had,
Both glad and sad
A new path now, we seek to find.

To the old school we say good bye
And start our journey with a mournful eye
To walk along life's lonely road
To bear the burden of a heavy load
To toil and slave, till we shall die.

Our place on earth, we must fill
And strive to reach the top of the hill
And to be proud to proclaim
Old Rich Square High and all her fame.

CLASS HISTORY

Twelve years ago a group of thirty boys and girls enrolled in the first grade. Our teacher, Miss Ella Lee Boomer, was a kind and understanding person, who helped us to become adjusted to school life.

At the beginning of our second year we had lost five members, but our enrollment had increased to twenty-seven by the entrance of two students from nearby towns. Miss Agnes Taylor, now Mrs. Woodrow Grant, was our teacher.

Our third grade teacher was Mrs. Olive Askew, who taught us English for the first time. Our enrollment list had increased to thirty-two by the end of that school year.

At the beginning of our fourth year we had gained five more new members, which brought the total to thirty-seven. Our teacher was Mrs. Lucy Parker, who taught us geography for the first time.

Mrs. Alice White was our fifth grade teacher. At the beginning of that year we had lost six members.

At the beginning of our sixth year in school we had lost four members and gained one. Mrs. Charlotte King was our teacher that year.

We were taught by two teachers in the seventh grade, Mrs. Warren Harrell and Mrs. William Futrell. At the beginning of this year we had gained two new members, Grace Rountree and Larry Ivey. We also lost Betty Lynn Cooper. That year we took our first trip, Jamestown and Williamsburg, Virginia.

In the eighth grade Jean Weaver, Marion Futrell and Dalton Futrell joined our class. Our teacher, Mr. Joe Furr, accompanied us on our trip to Raleigh, where we visited various places of interest.

Finally, we found ourselves in high school, a little confused but thrilled to have reached this stage of our education. Our home room teacher was Mr. Joe Browning. Our enrollment for that year was twenty-eight. We also lost one of our prominent members at the end of that school year; Charles Boomer left us and entered Randolph Macon in Virginia.

Mr. Roger Holloman was our home room teacher in the tenth grade. That year we lost Eddie Gibbs, Malcolm Best, Elizabeth Gibson, Martha Jean Jilcott, Shelba Odom, Grace Rountree and Jean Weaver.

In our junior year we gained two members, Clyde Burgess and Richard Brown, who had left us in the ninth grade, and we lost Polly Bryant. Under the excellent supervision of Miss Maybell Bryant, our home room teacher, we raised money with which to give the Junior-Senior Banquet. As this was the greatest task that we had in high school, we tried to make it a success. I think we succeeded wonderfully.

With Mrs. Margaret Dunning as our home room teacher, seventeen of us became seniors. Grace Rountree, who had left us in the tenth grade, returned this year. Under the supervision of Mr. Roger Holloman we undertook the task of producing the 1959 edition of the "ROWANIAN." There were a great number of activities carried on to raise money with which to take our trip to New York.

As the history of our class comes to a close let us consider the words, "Life is sweet just because of the friends we have made. We want to live on not because of ourselves, but because of the people who care." By looking back in the past, we can look forward to an even greater tomorrow.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Seniors of 1959, of Rich Square High School, supposedly of unquestionable dignity, do hereby make our last will and testament. We realize we'll soon be leaving old R. S. H. to further our education in life, so it's our pleasure to leave to the lower classmen and fellow students these momentous things.

ARTICLE I

To the Rich Square High School we leave our deepest love and devotion.

ARTICLE II

To our Principal, Faculty, and Grademothers we would like to say we never could have done it without you, and that we sincerely appreciate your guidance and love that you so freely gave to us to help us in our future life.

ARTICLE III

We, the Seniors, leave these individual bequests:

To the sophisticated Juniors we leave our Senior privileges and our title, "Dignified Seniors."

To all of our fellow students, we leave our thanks for their participation in the wonderful times we have been blessed with.

Billy Worrell leaves his good looks and ways with the girls to Robert Whitley.

Earl Wade leaves his masculine body and especially his shoulders to Earl Daniels.

Linwood Bryant leaves his quietness to Earl Boyce.

Linda Weaver leaves her secret of keeping three or more boys on the hook at one time to Linda Bradley.

Grace Rountree leaves her quietness to Betty Futrell and Jane Bean, who need it.

Brandt Brown leaves the driving skills he picked up at Ahoskie driving school to Dickie Jenkins, who has trouble with swamp bridges.

J. G. Baker leaves his glass pack mufflers to Willie Wayne Conner of the Rich Square deputy police force.

Earl Wade and Lynda Harrington leave their dancing abilities to Dickie Jenkins and Mary Harrington.

Richard Brown leaves his rabbit hunting to any poor shot, just to give the rabbits a rest, until he comes home from the Air Force.

Billy Futrell and Manning Cooke leave the school to Pat Powers and Bettye Futrell, who have already taken hold.

Linda Tanner wills her horn to Gail Howell, who drives almost as fast.

Charles Dunning leaves his ability to make 100 on a test to Billy Johnson.

Larry Ivey just wants to leave his nickname "Bantom" for good.

Virginia Warren leaves her flirting ways to the Freshmen girls.

Betty Lou Askew leaves her good natured ways and likeable qualities to all of the underclassmen and fellow students.

I, Al Ward, leave my pastime of whistling to Wilford Odom.

Billy Worrell, Earl Wade, and J. G. Baker leave their football glory to Billy Burroughs who is an underrated player.

Charles Dunning leaves his boots to anyone who wants his muddy bus route.

For all interested Sophomores, Larry Ivey is leaving his taxi in front of his house on ballgame nights.

Billy Futrell leaves his song book to Kathleen Clark, who probably could do the best job of a song leader.

Linda Weaver leaves her way of running through red lights and not getting pulled to Glenn Chapell, who attracts patrolmen.

Manning Cooke leaves to all car owners the advice, "Look before backing."

To this, Our Last Will and Testament, we set our seal on this day, May 26, 1959.
